

Say something. Do something.

It sounds like violence taking place in the neighboring apartment? What you can do:

StoP Stadtteile ohne
Partnergewalt

www.stop-partnergewalt.at

1. Call the women's help line against violence free of charge at 0800 222 555 and discuss the best approach. Available 24/7, even at night, weekends and public holidays.
2. Interrupt the violence:
 - a. Call the police.
 - b. Ring the respective apartment's doorbell, go alone or with somebody. Ask if everything is OK or ask for something ordinary, such as sugar/flour or for the time – simply to interrupt the violence.
3. Talk to your neighbor(s) so that you can do something together.
4. If you would like to get involved with the cause beyond that:
 - a. Take part in our program StoP – Stadtteile ohne Partnergewalt (Districts without violence among partners): www.stop-partnergewalt.at Write to us: margareten@stop-partnergewalt.at
 - b. Talk openly about violence among partners. Signal to the victims that they do not need to be ashamed.

Important phone numbers in case of domestic violence / violence among partners:

Police Emergency No.: 133 Euro Emergency No.: 112

Police Service No. (non-binding advice): 059-133

Women's helpline against violence: 0800 222 555

Online counseling: www.haltdergewalt.at

Website for children: www.gewalt-ist-nie-ok.at maennerinfo.at - 0720/704400 (for men, throughout Austria)

Emergency No. for children: Rat auf Draht 147

Bundesministerium
Soziales, Gesundheit, Pflege
und Konsumentenschutz

Gefördert aus den Mitteln des Fonds Gesundes Österreich
Gesundheit Österreich
GmbH

RD Foundation Vienna
Research | Development | Human Rights
Gemeinnützige Privatstiftung

Geschäftsbereich
Fonds Gesundes
Österreich